PLACE YOUR BETS ON LOUBET

SWEET LOU – ATSALLRITIE HANOVER – ROCKNROLL HANOVER
Record: p,2,1:49.3 $161,738 | 2024 Stud Fee: $4,000

“I was as excited about Loubet as a 3 year old as I've ever been with any horse. He won his last race at 2 (the 2022 Kindergarten) in 1:49.3, last quarter in :25.3. He’s got a different gear, he’s special, but unfortunately fought injuries at 3. In a 3 year old class dominated by Sweet Lou’s, I truly believe he was capable of being at the top. We will breed some of our mares to Loubet and can’t wait to bid on his yearlings. I think he’ll be an exciting, fresh option for the state of Indiana” – trainer Ron Burke

As 2023 becomes a memory, and 2024 begins, I find it most important to look back on the past year, in order to find success in the new year. The 2023 race meet saw many triumphs and many challenges, and much history was made. The Indiana harness racing program is as strong as ever, however with surrounding state competition growing and increasing, the 2024 harness racing year and its progress becomes ever more important.

Each entity must be communicating and working together in 2024 to continue to promote, grow, and protect our Indiana harness program, and it’s $2 billion impact it has on the state of Indiana’s economy. Hoosier Park, the IHRC, the Standardbred Breed Development, and the Indiana Standardbred Association and its members, all must come together. Our sport and our industry are at a crossroads in 2024, and it is all our jobs to carry it over the threshold of success.

In 2023, we saw what can happen when all entities work as one, whether it is the Breeders Crown, Dan Patch Stakes, the Governor’s Cup, or Super Finals Night. All were successful, and Indiana harness stood proud. The commitment to stand by the Final Order that Hoosier Park and Caesars Entertainment has shown in the upkeep of the backside and the track at Hoosier Park has made our track the best in North America. There is no other harness program that even comes close to what we have at Hoosier Park’s backside. The commitment that the IHRC, Hoosier Park, and the ISA have made to bring guests back to the track must continue into 2024.

The addition of the HOP (Hoosier Outdoor Patio), weekly music, and one of the best Owners VIP programs in the business makes the frontside of Hoosier Park more inviting for families, race fans, and owners to come out to the track. We have some momentum, and we must all carry it forward. New and additional food options are a must at Hoosier Park.

It is most important that we continue to make Hoosier Park more inviting to those that ship in whether it is within the state or from out of state. Planning and conversations have begun for ongoing meetings during the winter months, including all entities to tackle five-hour detention, the Lasix vet program, and heat index and air quality index standards, all of which were challenges we faced in 2023. Many other topics will be explored during these meetings, with the hope that when March 1 hits we are all in a better place and ready for the race meet.

The ISA board is a solid group of individuals with a great mix of young members and several veterans of the sport on the board. We will have our work cut out for us, continued on page 8...

The road to victory begins here...
The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) is a non-profit organization led by 15 elected directors. We support the Indiana Standardbred Horse Racing Industry and all of its affiliated horsemen and women.

The ISA continually strives to meet the needs and wishes of the harness people of Indiana and favorably position the association to represent the harness horse industry in matters involving the legislature, the Indiana Horse Racing Commission (IHRC), pari-mutuel race track management, and other matters directly involving member’s interests.

Membership is voluntary with an annual membership fee of $50. Anyone can become a member. Members do not have to be from the State of Indiana. Limited benefits are available with a paid membership.

PURPOSE:
To promote and increase interest in harness horses and harness racing; to represent and establish cooperation between county, state, and pari-mutuel racetrack operations, breeders, owners, trainers, drivers and grooms; to sponsor and promote Standardbred racing, breeding, training, and development programs in the State of Indiana; to represent horsemen/women in negotiations with racetrack operations, to promote integrity within the sport, and to take other actions in the furtherance of the Standardbred Racing Industry in the state of Indiana.

Don’t Let’em ready for debut as a stallion in 2024

By Tammy Knox

Don’t Let’em had success at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. Now, his connections hope he will pass that success down to his foals who will make their debut in 2024. The Indiana stallion, who stands at Ivy Lane Farm in Goshen, Ind., had 61 yearlings sell this past fall out of 78 registered in Indiana.

Don’t Let’em is a son of Muscle Hill who earned more than $600,000 during his career racing mainly in Grand Circuit level races. He was trained at two by Hall of Famer Jimmy Takter. When Takter retired from training, during the colt’s three-year-old season, he moved all the training responsibilities over to his daughter, Nancy, who handled the colt’s schedule at three.

Don’t Let’em took his best mark that season in 1:50.2 at The Meadowlands in the Reynolds Memorial. He proved to be a top-level colt for his connections. Owned by Brittany Farms, Christina Takter, John Fielding, and Herb Liverman, he traveled through a majority of the stakes and eventually made his way to Indiana. He scored a track record winning performance for three-year-old colt trotters in the $220,000 Carl Erskine. Ironically, he won over another colt in that race that now stands at stud in Indiana, Pilot Discretion. Driven by Yannick Gingras during most of his career, Don’t Let’em also scored a win in the $422,350 Peter Haughton Memorial at two.

Don’t Let’em has royalty in his bloodlines. His dam, Passageway, traces back as the great granddaughter of the fabulous trotting mare, Winky’s Gill, who won a heat of the Hambletonian in 1983. She was also the dam of Hambletonian winner Winky’s Goal and Haughton.
Memorial winner Supergill, showing she passed her success onto the next generation of racehorses. At one time, she was the highest priced Standardbred at public auction, selling in 1986 for $800,000 to Perretti Farms. In her later years, she served as a babysitter for the yearling fillies at Perretti Farms, where she passed away at the age of 34 in 2014 and was buried in the farm’s equine cemetery.

For his first crop at the sales this fall, a colt and a filly topped the sale list at the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale, each fetching a sale price of $26,000. I’m Gonna Doit is a son of the Cantab Hall mare Alexandria Hanover, a winner of $250,000 with a mark of 1:56.1. I’m Gonna Doit is her first foal. He came out of the Eden Standardbred consignment and was purchased by Dave Arrenholz of Trivoli, Ill.

The filly, Rollin Explosion, also brought $26,000 through the ring. Consigned by Rollin Acres of Odon, the filly is a half sister to Swan Explosion, a two-year-old winner this year at both Hoosier Park and Oak Grove Racing. Rollin Explosion was purchased by Wrenn Racing of Carmel, Ind.

Let’em Be was the top foal by Don’t Let’em that sold at the Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale. Consigned by Double R Farm, the colt brought $18,500 and was purchased by James Yoder of Upland. A colt also sold at the Lexington Select Sale by Don’t Let’em, bringing $17,000. The colt, Racin Jayson, sold during the final session under Peninsula Farm, acting as agent. Mike Hollenback of Chesterfield, Ind. purchased the colt.

Of the 61 foals that sold from the first crop of Don’t Let’em, 32 were fillies and 29 were colts. Nearly half of them sold between the $10,000 and $20,000 range.

For the first time, the Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) is combining the 2024 Stallion Directory with the December issue of the ISA Magazine. The back portion of the publication is dedicated to the stallions standing at stud in Indiana for 2024.

Applications accepted for ISA positions

As the 2023 racing season comes to a close at Harrah’s Hoosier Park, it brings up the annual time of year to post two positions with the Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA). Under organizational requirements, the positions of the ISA Horsemen’s Representative and the ISA Gator Driver must be posted annually, and applications are now being accepted for the 2024 racing season.

The ISA Horsemen’s Representative works as a liaison between horsemen and the ISA Board. The position is based at Harrah’s Hoosier Park but can include visits to the farms and the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit. The ISA Horsemen’s Representative also attends the draw for racing as well as other events involving the ISA, from fundraisers to ISA sponsored activities both on and off the track.

The ISA Gator Driver works in the barn area during live racing, providing rides to participants in the nightly racing program to better serve those traveling to and from the paddock.

For more information and to receive an application for both the ISA Horsemen’s Representative and the ISA Gator Driver, contact the ISA Office at (317) 462-6616. All applications for positions are due by Sunday, Dec. 31, 2023.

but I do not hesitate when I say, “we are up for the challenge.” This board will leave its mark on the Indiana harness program and will set it up for years of success.

Growing our membership must become goal #1. The more members we have the stronger we are as a group. Our benefits are too good to pass up for a simple $50 a year membership fee. We continue to explore other benefits to add to the program.

I leave you and the 2023 year with this: Indiana harness racing is rich in history for the last century. It is made up of generation after generation of families that love the sport and the state. Many of you are a part of those families and those generations. It is up to us as to what the next generation of Indiana harness racing becomes.

Have a wonderful holiday, and cheers to the New Year!
ISA Clinic to remain open two days during winter

With the 2023 racing season coming to a close Saturday, Dec. 9, the Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) Clinic generally moves to service on one day per week during the winter. However, with the barn area remaining open for training, the ISA has made the decision to keep the clinic open during regular hours.

The ISA Clinic will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Tuesday and Friday throughout the winter. This will match the normal hours offered during the racing season.

Eligibility requirements for the ISA Clinic include a valid 2024 IHRC Standardbred license. Those visiting the clinic must bring the IHRC license and a driver’s license or a photo ID to the appointment before treatment will be allotted.

ISA Clinic healthcare is provided in conjunction with Community Health Network of Anderson, Ind. Numerous services are offered, and medical conditions are evaluated at the facility, located in the Racing Administration Building at the entrance to the barn area at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

To make an appointment, call the ISA Clinic at (317) 621-1230.
Cathy Webb takes on new role as USTA Director

Jay Cross’s decision to not seek reelection as the District 2B Membership Director of the U.S. Trotting Association (USTA) left a vacancy since Indiana is allocated two elected seats and one appointed to serve as the racetrack director. Cathy Webb recently joined Sam Hedington (also automatically elected since he was running unopposed) and Scott Peine (the racetrack director) as the newest Indiana representative on the national board.

“My interest in becoming a USTA Director began several years ago and culminated this past spring with a situation we had at the farm. It led to a lot of research and discussions; ultimately, I decided to petition to run for a directorship position. While I have never attended a USTA meeting, I am hoping that I can use my experiences within both the veterinary practice and breeding industry to serve its membership. I have seen the industry from both sides and want to advocate for the betterment of the Standardbred breed,” Cathy Webb explained.

Cathy was born and raised in Elkhart and helped in her family’s metal fabrication business from an early age. Her father eventually allowed her to oversee the company finances which she did until his unexpected death; the company ceased operations two years later. Cathy began a new career as a respiratory therapist and EKG assistant at Goshen General hospital. A friend asked if Cathy was interested in a part-time bookkeeping job at a local veterinary clinic where she met her future husband, Dr. Paul Webb.
Cathy Webb takes on new role

By Tara Ellen Taylor

The manager of Millersburg Animal Clinic since 1998, Cathy also oversees the day-to-day operations and serves as office manager of Ivy Lane Farm which she and Paul opened in 2001. The 70-acre farm is located in Goshen, Ind. and is currently home to three trotting stallions: Jujubee (standing his first season in 2024), Dover Dan, and Don’t Let’em.

Cathy is a caring, thoughtful person as evidenced by her concern about the low number of equine/large animal veterinarians graduating of late. While she recognizes this is not a “USTA” problem, she does think about its potential impact on harness racing.

“As breeding farms, we will have to assess how to continue to provide the proper standard of care. My fear is that some farms will be forced to cut back tremendously or cease operations entirely,” added Cathy.

Cathy’s interests lie within all aspects of breeding and finance, but she remains open-minded in how her expertise will best be utilized in her role as a U.S. Trotting Association’s director. She looks forward to her new opportunity.

Cross spent more than two decades representing Indiana as a USTA director for District 2B, which covers both Indiana and Michigan. Directors from Michigan in the district include Marilyn Breuer-Bertera, who serves as chairperson, Mike Sweeney of Delaware, Ohio, and Steve Oldford of Lexington, Mich. There are a total of 13 districts under the USTA. Russell Williams from District 7 in Pennsylvania serves as President of the board. All directors will convene on Columbus, Ohio, the home of the USTA for the annual Board of Directors Meeting March 8 – 10 at the Hilton Columbus at Easton. This will be the first meeting Webb will be included in as she begins her term as a USTA director. She will be only one of five women on the current board, joining Breuer-Bertera from her district, Cara Collins of District 6 (southern states), and Ashley Tetrick and Jackie Ingrassia of District 12 (New Jersey).

District meetings in recent years have gone to Zoom calls to go over any rule change proposals and receive feedback and comments from members in a specific district. The annual Zoom meeting for Indiana/Michigan was held Monday, Dec. 11.
Rockin Nola, Indiana’s reigning pacing queen, has stepped onto a racetrack for the last time. The seven-year-old daughter of Rockin Image was retired at the end of her 2023 racing season, just shy of $1 million over an illustrious career that included five straight Indiana Sires Stakes Championships. Owned by J P Racing, which consists of Mike Johnson and Joe Putnam, and Linda Cox’s Suttons Bay Racing, Rockin Nola made her last start Nov. 11 at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

Rockin Nola recorded her last win, victory number 42, in May of 2023, completing six years of action. She started 112 times and her best mark of 1:48.4, which at the time was a track record and the fastest female ever in Indiana, was taken at five. Her career tally of $988,147 was supported by five $100,000-plus seasons on the track.

“She’s had some little things bothering her, but it wasn’t anything major,” said Joe Putnam, who has trained her from day one. “We would have liked to have gotten a million on her card, but we just didn’t want to push her over $11,000. It’s time for her to retire. She’s older and the younger mares are getting faster. She is already at Anvil and Lace in Kentucky and we have her booked to Sweet Lou, so we are looking forward to a colt or a filly from her in the near future.”

Rockin Nola’s biggest year was her five-year-old season when she won 12 of 24 races and her career best time of 1:48.4. In that year alone, she paced nine miles under the 1:50 time barrier. Overall, she won in under 1:50 five years in a row, including a 1:49.0 win at Harrah’s Hoosier Park in May of this year.
“A lot of her races stand out to me, but I think winning her fifth consecutive Indiana Sires Stakes final has to be one of the best,” added Putnam, who was recently inducted into the Indiana Horse Racing Association Hall of Fame. “She drew the outside and got to the lead. The fractions were quick, and she paced home in 26 and change to win it. Winning five like that is pretty darn impressive.”

Putnam notes their stable star knows she’s special and although she’s not mean, she can have some attitude. She has been cared for by Cheryl O’Mara since her three-year-old season and the two formed a special bond over the years.

“She knows she is good,” added Putnam. “She can have a little attitude, but overall, she’s been super to work around. We are very blessed to have such a special filly in our barn.”

Rockin Nola is the daughter of Gottogetoutmore, who took a mark of 1:52.2 and made more than $200,000. The mare had six foals, including a full brother, Jeopardy, who won in 1:51.2 and made $113,000 during his career. That horse is what spurred Putnam to take another look at “Nola” at the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale.

“She caught my eye in the book because she’s out of a Keystone Raider mare and during my time in Michigan, I was familiar with that breeding,” explained Putnam. “Plus, I remember her brother (Jeopardy) racing at Hoosier...
Park. He had some lameness issues, but he had a ton of ability. And, I’ve had luck in the past with Rockin Image foals, so sometimes, it is just meant to be.”

Putnam was able secure Rockin Nola for $15,000 from breeder Mahlon Lambright. He bid one time and got the filly. He went into partnership with Johnson, part of J P Racing, and Linda and Mike Cox of Michigan, who race under Sutton’s Bay Racing. However, Mike never got the opportunity to watch her race as he passed away in June of her two-year-old season.

Rockin Nola teamed up with Joey Putnam as her driver when she was three and the two went on to earn 36 wins. They made appearances in the Breeders Crown together, and what made “Nola” such a fierce competitor was her ability to race on the front or come from off the pace, which she did many times on Hoosier Park’s long stretch en route to the winner’s circle. Prior to her connection with Joey, she was driven by LeWayne Miller. Besides being driven by Joe Putnam in her first qualifier at two, no other driver has ever sat behind her.

Her success was not limited to Indiana. Rockin Nola also won races at Oak Grove and Scioto Downs. She retires as the third richest foal ever from an extensive list of impressive performers by Rockin Image. She is the richest mare by the sire. The two horses listed above her on the list of most successful foals includes the great Freaky Feet Pete and Little Rocket Man, pretty strong company to be linked with.

Rockin Nola has already linked herself to some horses at her new home. Putnam noted Ron Burke recently retired one of his good older pacing mares and the two are decompressing from the track together.

“They told me Ron (Burke) had a mare coming down and we had a two-year-old filly to turn out, so we went ahead and sent her down to Anvil and Lace,” added Putnam. “She needs some down time to get acclimated to her new surroundings and the other horses. It was time.”

Indiana racing fans will miss seeing the blue hood of Rockin Nola blaze down the stretch. However, fans will have something to look forward to in anticipation of her foals. Thanks for the memories, Rockin Nola.
ISA elects new directors for 2024

The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA), consisting of 15 elected directors, held its annual election for the 2024 season. Three new ISA directors will join the group beginning January 2024. Those individuals are Chad Clark, Joe Essig Jr., and John Merkel. Incumbents re-elected to the board for another three-year-term include John DeLong, who currently serves as President, Randy Hatton, and Robert Taylor.

Clark and Essig Jr. were elected by vote from the members of ISA. Merkel is stepping in to replace Director Sarah Conrad, who is stepping down. She has an additional year left on her term, which will be filled by Merkel, who resides in the same district as Conrad.

Those going off the board beginning in 2024 include Chad Gooding and Dennis Petty, in addition to Conrad.

The ISA Board is set to hold their first meeting of 2024 with the new group Monday, Jan. 8 beginning at 6 p.m. at the ISA Office in Greenfield, Ind. Officers will be elected at that time and directors will be assigned to committees for the 2024 racing season in Indiana.
Outstanding entries made it difficult to decide among the creative efforts, but the panel of judges selected “Barbie” as the winning entry in the 2023 Fright Night event. The annual event showcases some extraordinary talent each year during the event that supports the community Trunk or Treat and other festive activities at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

This year’s talented teams representing the horsemen and horsewomen of Indiana harness racing were as follows:

Barbie
Participants: Emma Husted, Judy Lunsford, Bryce and Brooke Nickells, Chloe & Sandy Tetrick
Horse: Fabeo

Down On The Farm
PEOPLE’S CHOICE RECIPIENT
Participants: Cash, Chance, & Nicole Stewart
Horse: Starfire

Haunted House
Participants: Kendra, Bentley, & April Frye
Horse: Frank

Trunk or Treat activities attracted another huge crowd, this year near the south end of the grandstand. A solid stream of goblins, action figures and princesses gathered treats from more than a dozen groups distributing candy from their vehicles including Emily and Sonora Dever representing the Indiana Standardbred Association.

Harrah’s Hoosier Park again supplied free pumpkins and a horse shoe painting area. The event also included strolling entertainment while guests waited in line to go down through the Trunk or Treat activities.

The event has become a staple on the community calendar in Madison County. A special thanks everyone who participated to make another Fright Night an evening to remember.

Anderson Park, Inc., now known as Harrah’s Hoosier Park, is approved for the sale of the property to Churchill Downs Management Company for $1.9 million, marking the first time Churchill has held a racing interest outside of Kentucky since 1939. Construction resumes on the site set to open in the fall of 1994.

Park Avenue Kathy was killed in a fire in a horse van in Italy. Three other horses were in the van at the time and sustained major injuries. The fire was thought to have started from a cigarette flicked out the window of a passing car. Prior to being exported, the trotting mare won the Hambletonian Oaks. Park Avenue Kathy was trained in the U.S. by Bruce Nickells.

Indiana Downs completed its first full year of racing. Paired with Hoosier Park, a total of 150 live racing dates are held with 50 at Hoosier Park and 100 at Indiana Downs beginning in July.

5 Years Ago:
Indiana sired Hannelore Hanover is named Horse of the Year. The World Champion trotting mare completed her career with more than $3 million and a mark of 1:49.2. She was elected to the Living Hall of Fame earlier this year.

The first Michiana Classic Yearling Sale is held at the newly built Michiana Event Center. A total of 120 horses are cataloged for the event. Whata Swan, a colt by Swan for All, was the highest priced seller at $39,000. He was purchased by John Barnard from In Law Stables.
Terrorizing Y’all – not a terror at all

By New Vocations Racehorse Adoption

Terrorizing Y’all endeared himself to a number of Indiana horsemen and horsewomen during his six-year career. His stats aren’t that impressive compared to many aged campaigners, but he was honest and gave what he had every time he went behind the gate.

Bill and Kim Beechy of Indiana came upon the son of Western Terror on a hill farm in Kentucky. They had gone to look at a filly and this dejected looking two-year-old gelding was in the same field; skin and bones, long feet, looking miserable. He’d raced a few times at the Pennsylvania fairs with little success and wasn’t doing any better as a buggy horse prospect.

“He followed my wife around the whole time we were looking at the other horse,” Bill said. “She insisted that we had to take him, too, so I took them both. We nick-named them Lucy and Ricky.”

The Beechy’s took Ricky home to Northern Indiana and let him regain his health and mature through his three-year-old year.

Bill enjoys jogging and training his horses when he can, and he found Ricky to be accommodating and easy to drive. Once he was close to the races, Bill turned him over to LeWayne Miller at four to race at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. That proved to be the best season of Ricky’s career with earnings of $31,130.

After just nine starts at five, the gelding was sidelined with soreness the rest of the year. As a six-year-old Bill sent Ricky to his friend Roman Lopez to race at Vernon Downs before winding back up in LeWayne Miller’s Poptart is best friends with Thoroughbred Captain Marvin who also came from New Vocations. Photo Provided hands to close out the year at Hoosier Park and Dayton Raceway. The spring of 2020 found Ricky back in New York, this time with Jesse Yoder, but the well-traveled gelding once again ended up at Hoosier Park racing through the fall for Tom Tetrick.

“He got sore in his back the next year and strained a suspensory. I knew it was time to retire him and I wanted to be sure he got a good home,” Bill said. “So I sent him to New Vocations.”

Terrorizing Y’all arrived right before Christmas and settled in nicely just like one would expect from a seasoned campaigner.

“He was so well behaved and relaxed,” said New Vocations’ Hamilton, Ohio trainer Laura Kursman. “He easily took to standing at the mounting block and being ridden, even occasionally picking up that elusive canter.”

During his transition from driving to riding, the gelding earned the nickname “Poptart” because he would sort of “pop up” while learning to move into a trot with a rider. Even at this stage he was calm enough for Kursman’s 11-year-old student to handle.

Meanwhile, Paige McCaslin was looking for a horse to replace her beloved Thoroughbred that had recently passed away. She wanted one that she could build a relationship with and develop a strong bond of trust to do liberty work as well as some low level jumping. She found what she was looking for in “Poptart.”

“Poptart has really impressed me with his try hard skills,” McCaslin said. “I think he enjoys having a purpose.”

At New Vocations, “Poptart” displayed a wonderful easy going disposition and seemed to really enjoy children.

“Now, he has become bomb-proof and rideable for anyone,” McCaslin said. “We even had a 5-year-old on his back, and he was a rock star. We, also had an inexperienced adult on his back, and he took such good care of her both at home and at the horse show. He is such a fun horse with a heart of gold.”

This fall, the ever agreeable gelding has a new admirer.

“We have two younger neighbors who love the horses, and the youngest sibling is Poptart’s biggest fan,” added Kursman. “She comes over daily to brush him and give him treats. Down the line she will be taking lessons with me and has asked to ride Poptart. I told her she absolutely can; he is wonderful with kids on his back.”

Terrorizing Y’All first endeared himself to Bill’s wife Kim as he followed her around a hill farm in Kentucky. Then he endeared himself to Bill, and subsequently to his various trainers, LeWayne Miller, Roman Lopez, Jesse Yoder and Tom Tetrick who each found him to be accommodating with a strong work ethic.

“He was a small horse, but he always tried his heart out,” said LeWayne’s wife Susan.

Now in the next chapter of his life, Terrorizing Y’all has endeared himself to his new family and continues to shine.

“Poptart is perfect with the farrier, trailering and ground manners, and he’s great with children and inexperienced adults,” McCaslin said. “He is such a blessing in our lives and we absolutely love him with all of our hearts.”
ISA Annual Awards Banquet set for January

The turn to a new year also brings the annual Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) Awards banquet. The event is slated for Saturday, Jan. 20 at the Embassy Suites Conference Center just off I-69 in Noblesville, Ind.

The banquet will begin with social time followed by a meal, awards ceremony and entertainment to wrap up the evening. The event was attended by a record crowd last year to honor the champions of 2022.

Room reservations are available at a discounted rate through the ISA Awards Banquet. Invitations with more information and details on reserving a room are being sent out in December. This is the third year the banquet will be held at the Embassy Suites facility and has proven to be a good move for those who attend, with easy access, ample parking, and spacious banquet space.

For more information on the ISA Banquet, contact the ISA Office at (317) 462-6616 or contact the office through Kristi Collett at Kristi.isaracing@gmail.com.

National FFA Convention puts Blue Jackets everywhere

By Tara Ellen Taylor

A sea of Blue Jackets (FFA members) and advisors from all over the United States flooded downtown Indianapolis in early November for the 96th annual National Future Farmers of America (FFA) Convention. The 2023 event was estimated at more than 65,000 people associated with the event were in attendance for this year’s four-day conference, a new record. According to results released from the main office, the convention ranks 28th in North American and fourth in the Midwest for attendance.

Many came to participate in national level competitions, both team and individual. But nearly all came to share their appreciation for all things agriculture including the collaborative booth featuring harness racing. For the second year, Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA), Harness Horse Youth Foundation (HHYF), Ohio Harness Horsemen’s Association (OHHA), and the U.S. Trotting Association (USTA) staffed a 10 x 30 area filled with interactive, educational experiences related to harness racing.

Virtual reality of a race stretch drive, hind leg bone assembly, bandaging station, and spin the wheel trivia were featured. The activities were busy nearly the entire three days of operations in the Convention Center. In addition, material from USTA and HHYF was available to those who were interested as well as squeeze horses and trading card packs which were used as prizes.

Many thanks to the following volunteers: McKayla Bailey, Joyse Banister, Emily Dever, Nancy Harrington, Rachel Leonard, Kim Poma, Tony Renz, Julie Rideout, Kelly Richardson, Vicky Rouch, Jessica Schroeder, Susan Schroeder, Jennifer Tuttle, and Tabatha DeLong. Also a special thanks to Dave White for their services transporting the race bike.
Trotting brood mare tops Midwest Classic Mixed Sale

By Tammy Knox

The Midwest Classic Mixed Sale took on a new look this season by combining both the yearlings who previously sold under the Michiana Classic Yearling Sale with the Midwest Classic Mixed Sale. A total of 147 horses were cataloged beginning with 83 yearlings, four weanlings, two racehorses, six stallion shares, and 51 broodmares.

The sale, held Tuesday, Nov. 21, marked the seventh year a sale had been held at the Michiana Event Center (MEC) in Shipshewana, Ind. The highest priced yearling was Hey Blinkin, a son of Tellitlikeitis consigned by Alpine Stables for $24,000. Alvin Miller of Bunker Hill, Ind. signed the ticket for Hey Blinkin as agent. The colt is a third foal from the Roll With Joe mare Gypsy Bellevue with a mark of 1:52.3 and the dam of two-year-old Sabonis, who took a mark of 1:55.1 this season.

The highest priced overall entrant in the sale was Mystical Power, a trotting broodmare in foal to Temporal Hanover. Consigned by Oak Ridge Farm as part of their dispersal, the Yankee Glide mare has a mark of 1:55.3 and made more than $100,000 during her racing career. She has a yearling colt by What the Hill and a weanling Dover Dan filly retained by Oak Ridge Farm for the sales next year. She brought $48,000 through the ring and was purchased by Cathy Webb of Goshen, Ind.

Indiana trainers have held their own in 2023. Three of the top five in the country among wins are regular conditioners at Harrah’s Hoosier Park, showing the firepower of stables currently competing in Indiana.

Ron Burke is once again leading the nation in wins with 1,151 for the 2023 season. Jeff Cullipher is ranked third with 306 wins followed by Erv Miller in fourth with 304 wins. Tyler George, Indiana’s four-time reigning training champ, is ranked 17th with 175 wins.

For trainers with less than 300 starts, Scott Linville, who races both at Harrah’s Hoosier Park and on the ISFC, is ranked 12th with 56 wins, more than $212,000 in earnings, and a UTRS (Universal Trainers Rating System) of .411. In the middle category of trainers with 300 – 499 starts, Charles Stewart is ranked 17th with 74 wins, $708,000 in earnings and a UTRS of .364. Rideout is also among the top 25 for trainers with UTRS averages in this category. Rideout is ranked 25th with 82 wins, more than $893,000 in earnings and a UTRS of .342 through Dec. 12, 2023.

Tyler George holds the top spot in the nation for UTRS averages with trainers of 500 or more starts. He currently has a UTRS of .450 over Ake Svanstedt, who has a UTRS of .420.
Buddy Simpson

Well-known local horseman Perry E. “Buddy” Simpson, 93, of Fairfield, passed away on Monday, Oct. 30, 2023 at the VA Medical Center in Marion, Ill. Born on June 24, 1930, in Wayne County, Ill. to Edgar and Ida (McKay) Simpson, Buddy was a U.S. Army Veteran and married Dorris Rister on October 5, 1954. They were married for 67 years until her passing in 2021. Buddy was a horseman, racing and training Standardbred horses from his Battleshoe Farm east of Fairfield.

Buddy was a fixture on the Southern Illinois County Fair Circuit for more than seven decades. His horses carried the farm name “Battleshoe” in their name, making them distinct to the Simpson training operation. Both of his sons, Clay and Dirk, went on to successful careers in racing and his grandsons have also experienced success in the Standardbred industry and on the Indiana pari-mutuel racing circuit.

With Dorris by his side, Buddy was the longtime trainer for H. Phil Pearce of Carmi, Ill. and had numerous year-end champions on the Egyptian Colt Stakes circuit. At the age of 91, he made his last start as a driver at Newton, Ill., winning the two-year-old Topline Trot with Mighty Rose trained by his son, Clay. He last trained horses in 2019 making his last start at Pana, Ill. Overall, Buddy won 442 races as a trainer and more than 1,123 races as a driver. Numerous wins for him were recorded before statistics began in 1977. Although a majority of his success was on the fair circuit, he also had many winners on the pari-mutuel circuit at the Illinois, Kentucky and Indiana tracks.

In 2002, Buddy was inducted into the IL Harness Horseman’s Hall of Fame. He was also a longtime member of the Union North Cumberland Presbyterian Church, where he served as elder and Sunday school teacher for many years.

Buddy is survived by sons Dirk (Robin) Simpson of Meadow Lands, Pa., and Clay (Lisa) Simpson of Fairfield, five grandchildren, two step grandchildren, three great grandchildren, two step great grandchildren, sister Carmen Simpson of Fairfield, sister-in-law Dorothy (Gene) Henson of Manchester, Mo., and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife Dorris Simpson, two brothers, and six sisters.

Funeral services for Buddy Simpson were held Saturday, Nov. 4, at the Union North Cumberland Presbyterian Church, with burial following in Union Cemetery. Visitation was held prior to the service at the church.

Memorials in his honor may be made to the Union North CP Building Fund at Johnson and Vaughn Funeral Home of Fairfield, Ill., which handled the arrangements.
Chili Cookoff spices up charitable giving

By Tammy Knox

The first Horsemen’s Chili Cookoff, held in partnership with the Indiana Standardbred Association and Harrah’s Hoosier Park, was held Thursday, Nov. 16 on the stage of the Terrace Showroom. A total of four teams competed to raise money for charity.

Each of the booths set up their displays and had themes for their areas. People could purchase tickets and sample the chili, voting for their favorite brew. Each booth selected a charity to represent, and any money went to the group. In all, more than $400 was raised through the Horsemen’s Chili Cookoff including a matching donation from Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

Payton Ode and Tim Clevenger finished in first place. The money raised went to their charity of choice, Toys for Tots.

Special thanks to everyone who participated in the Chili Cookoff and for those who donated to a great cause.

ISA Bowling Party

The annual end of year Horsemen’s Bowling Party was held from 5 – 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 19 at Championship Lanes in Anderson, the former Cooper Sport Bowl near Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

The event was well attended and is a bi-annual outing. The beginning of the meet also includes a bowling party, hosted by the Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) and Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

Horsemen and horsewomen enjoy a free night out that includes food, drawing for a variety of door prizes, and of course free bowling.

IHRC Licensing for 2024 now available

By Tammy Knox

As the 2023 racing season comes to a close, preparations are in the works for the 2024 racing season, including all licensing requirements by the Indiana Horse Racing Commission (IHRC). The office at Harrah's Hoosier Park is now accepting applications and renewals for next year. A reminder that all current IHRC licenses expire Dec. 31, 2023.

Applications are available online by going to www.hrc.in.gov/hrc through the Licensing section. Applications faxed or scanned in should have prior arrangements for payment for any licenses.

The IHRC also offers an online licensing portal at: https://hrms.hrc.in.gov/#/login For those who were licensed last year online, the process is simple to log in and begin paperwork.

Once an application has been reviewed and approved, a license will be mailed. For those needing 2024 fingerprints, an applicant can stop by the office or simply google a place nearby that provides fingerprinting services. All applicants should check with the license office first to determine if fingerprints are needed and if the selected provider will be accepted by IHRC. Fingerprints are $27.

For the convenience of all IHRC license holders, the date of previous fingerprints is shown on the back of all licenses.

For more information, call the IHRC License office at Harrah's Hoosier Park at: 765-609-4855.

Microchipping required for all Standardbreds

The U.S. Trotting Association (USTA) is following other racing breeds for identification of horses. The organization started out with lip tattoos and then moved to freeze brands on the neck of the horse. Beginning in 2019, the USTA went to Bio Thermal microchipping, which is a small chip implanted in the nuchal ligament on the left side of a Standardbred horse’s neck. The process is conducted at the same time when hair is pulled for DNA testing. Although this is available, the option for freeze branding is still available to horsemen and horsewomen at an additional fee.

The fee for microchipping in foals of 2019 to the present is implemented into the registration fee. All racehorses had to have microchips implanted by 2022 if racing in the United States, including county fairs. Horses are now identified with a reader, which is available at all pari-mutuel tracks. Bluetooth readers are available for purchase by an individual and may be obtained by contacting the USTA.

Microchipping may be done as early as 10 days for a newborn foal.

Donna Williams serves as the USTA Horse ID Technician for Indiana. She may be reached at (765) 208-0622 to set up an appointment. Mike Moss, former starter for many of the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit races, is also a USTA Horse ID Technician located in Kentucky. He is also available to Indiana residents by calling (270) 556-1000. For those in the western part of Indiana, Rick Schrock is the technician for Illinois and may be reached at (217) 899-7570.
Tetrick, George repeat for year-end honors

By Tammy Knox

Trace Tetrick and Tyler George defended their titles in their respective categories as the 30th season of Standardbred racing came to a close Saturday, Dec. 9 at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. It was the 10th consecutive leading driver title for Tetrick while George won his fourth leading trainer title.

“To be competitive on a nightly basis, that’s my main goal,” Tetrick noted in a Harrah’s Hoosier Park press release. “I hold myself to a standard where it doesn’t matter what I did yesterday or the race before, I approach each race individually and with a clean slate. I am thankful for everyone that supports me and puts me up to drive every night so I can stand here and accept this trophy.”

Heading into the final two days of action, Tetrick had 362 wins over second place John DeLong, who has 265 wins. The Geff, Ill. native won six races over the final two days of racing for a tally of 368 wins and more than $4.8 million in earnings, the most of any driver at the Anderson, Ind. racetrack.

The tally for Tetrick is just shy of his wins in 2022 when he won 387 wins. His highest tally in wins to date was recorded in 2021 when he won 403 races. In all, Tetrick completes the 30th season of racing at Harrah’s Hoosier Park with a win percentage of 22 percent, the highest compared to any other driver in the top 20 of the standings.

Tetrick also drove horses with an average of $2,838 per start, the most of any other driver in the top 15 on the charts. The 37-year-old reinsman completed the meet with 1,704 starts with a UDRS (Universal Drivers Rating System) of .337, also the highest percentage in the top 20.

The remaining drivers in the top five behind Tetrick and DeLong include Michael Oosting and Kyle Wilfong with 153. He won five races over the final two nights to finish third. Michael Oosting finished fourth with 149 over Jordan Ross, who won four races over closing weekend to finish fifth. Both Wilfong and Ross make their first top five appearance in the standings.

Nationally, Tetrick has also fared well this season and most notably, is ahead of his older brother Tim, who is hailed as one of the greatest drivers in harness racing history and always among the top drivers in North America annually. Through Dec. 11, the younger Tetrick has 529 wins in 2023 to rank fifth over Tim with 500 wins to rank in sixth place.

Earlier this year, Tetrick scored his 7,000th career win at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. This season also marks the 20th anniversary of Tetrick’s first win in 2003. This year’s title is his 12th overall at the Indiana track in the past 20 years.

For George, he earned his first leading trainer title in 2020 and hasn’t been defeated since, earning his fourth consecutive award. The Ohio native won 108 races, nine ahead of second place finisher Erv Miller with 134 less starts. Horses from the George Stable kept up a 32 percent win average with a UTRS (Universal Trainers Rading System) average of .463. Both percentages are the highest of any other trainer in the top 25. Overall, earnings from his barn topped $1.6 million, which was ranked fourth among all trainers. The Ron Burke Stable had the highest earnings bankroll of $3.3 million followed by Erv Miller ($2 million), and Missy Essig ($1.8 million).

Following George and Miller, the other top trainers of the meet included Jeff Cullipher and Missy Essig, tied for third with 79 wins apiece. Trent Stohler finished fifth with 65 wins.

George had many standouts during the season including upper conditioned pacer General Dolan and Indiana Sires Stakes contenders Tell's on a Roll and Rollin Rosie, who each won seven races during the meet. But one of the most impressive from his shedrow was the meet’s top horse, Mull of Kintyre, a four-year-old son of Well Said that had 13 wins and finished out the meet on a 10-race win streak.

Only a trainer since 2004, George now has 1,575 career wins and more than $15 million in earnings through Dec. 11, 2023. His best year to date was 2016 when he won 190 races, but his best season in purses has been 2023 with more than $2.4 million accumulated during the year. He set the record for most wins in one season last year at 126, breaking the previous record of 119 shared by his 2021 tally and Jeff Cullipher, who earned that record in 2018.

George and his wife, Cassie, a native of Canada, work side by side in the barn and share the success of the stable.

“It’s a great accomplishment,” George noted in a Harrah’s Hoosier Park press release. “We have a great team. It really is a team effort, and we are fortunate to have some great horses. We didn’t really have our eye on winning the title again this year. But we kept getting closer and closer and the horses kept racing good all season. We had a good year and are already looking forward to next year.”
Why Not Now sets Indiana auction record

By Tammy Knox

Why Not Now, the standout pacer from the Dylan Davis Stable, winning nine races in 2023, set a record as the highest priced Indiana horse to ever sell at auction. The Always a Virgin three-year-old was sold for $502,000 at On-Gait online auctions. Greg Luther of Ohio purchased the stallion. The ownership has announced he will also stand at stud in 2024 in Indiana.

Reigning from an outstanding family, Why Not Now is the latest to garner attention from his dam, Star of the Show. He joins Virgo, who has earned nearly a half million with a mark of 1:48.3, as a standout performer. Virgo was also campaigned by the Davis Stable and split time between Indiana and the East Coast. Other starters for the 100 percent producing mare for breeder Dustin Miller of Kendallville, Ind. includes Star Palace (1:53.4); American Anthem (1:53.4); American Passport (1:51.0, $350,000); and Remember Then (1:56.4). The mare has a two-year-old this season named Savannah Lady by Tellitlikeitis, a yearling named Done in Seven by JK Endofanera, and a weanling filly by Perfect Sting named Crazy Friend Carol.

Why Not Now was entered in the auction provided by On-Gait following his win in the $260,000 Progress Pace at Dover Downs. He completed his time in the Davis barn with first or second place finishes in his last 10 starts dating back to late July. In addition to his Progress Pace win, he won the $250,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final, the $80,000 Hoosier Cup, and the $135,500 Jennas Beach Boy all at Hoosier Park. In all, he has earned more than $600,000 this season and more than $700,000 overall. He was a $38,000 yearling purchase by Davis and owner Howard Taylor.

According to a press release on Why Not Now, he will serve in two roles in 2024. Luther plans to continue to race the four-year-old stallion and he will also stand at Premier Acres in Middlebury. Stud fee for the versatile stallion is $5,000. He joins other stallions at Premier Acres, including Temporal Hanover, who is booked full and closed, Best in Show, Capt Midnight, Odds on Equuleus, Pilot Discretion, and You Know You Do.
Harrah’s Hoosier Park Racing & Casino extends our sincerest appreciation for the unwavering support received throughout the 2023 live racing season which included hosting the highly-esteemed 2023 Breeders Crown. We remain deeply honored and humbled by the level of commitment shown by the Indiana Standardbred Association, Indiana Horse Racing Commission, Owners, Drivers, Trainers and the loyal, irreplaceable race fans.

We look forward to seeing everyone again in the Spring of 2024.
What a way to polish off an already superior meet. Mull of Kintyre completed his 2023 Indiana campaign Friday, Dec. 8 with his 10th straight win and his 13th overall to be the leading horse of the meet by wins at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. Trained by Tyler George, the high claiming gelding was a winner for driver Trace Tetrick in his final Indiana race in 1:50.4.

Mull of Kintyre led gate to wire in the win against $30,000 claimers. Upon his return to the winner’s circle accompanied by Tetrick’s theme song, “Thunderstruck” playing, he was greeted by a group of 11 supporters associated with Castaldo Racing of Illinois, who lined up all the way across the front of Mull of Kintyre for the winner’s circle photo.

A son of Well Said, Mull of Kintyre was unraced at two. He began his career last season in Delaware, breaking his maiden at Harrington Raceway in May of 2022. He first came to Indiana under the direction of Trainer
Missy Essig through a private transaction and was claimed by Jason Brewer before coming to the Tyler George barn Sept. 21. From that point on, Mull of Kintyre has been perfect, winning all 10 of his starts with Tetrick in the bike. Overall, the four-year-old leaves Harrah’s Hoosier Park with 16 wins this season in 34 starts. His quickest time was taken in late October in 1:49.3. He now has more than $142,000 in career earnings.

Included in his string of wins for the George Stable was a victory in the claiming series final of the $22,000 Garden State Park. That victory over Fox Valley Sampson gave him his career mark of 1:49.3 after traveling first over for the win by nearly six lengths.

Mull of Kintyre will transfer his talents over to Ohio for the winter for his new connections. Scott Linville and Jonas Schmucker claimed the four-year-old following his last Hoosier Park start from Castaldo Racing Stable of Illinois and TG Stable LLC of Indiana. He will continue to compete in the higher claiming ranks at Dayton and Miami Valley.

Other horses ranked by wins for the 2023 meet at Harrah’s Hoosier Park included Major Crocker A, who had 10 wins. Dojea Rock, Helpfirstedition, IC Caviar, Northern Rocks and Sunset Braydon all had nine wins apiece during the 160-day racing season.

Nationally, the 16 wins this season turned in by Mull of Kintyre ranks him in seventh place among all pacers. Coaches Corner, another Indiana sired pacer, is ranked third with 18 wins along with Little Rocket Man, who is tied for fourth with 17 wins in 2023 through Dec. 12, 2023.
2024 Racing Dates approved for Harrah’s Hoosier Park

The 2024 race dates calendar was approved at the Nov. 30, 2023 Indiana Horse Racing Commission meeting held at Horseshoe Indianapolis. Next year’s schedule mimics 2023 with a few exceptions.

Racing will conclude Saturday, Nov. 30 and will not extend into December next year. The final week will only include two days following Thanksgiving Thursday, Nov. 28. Three additional days will be held in November to complete the 160-day racing schedule.

Racing begins Friday, March 22, starting off with a pair of two-day race weeks followed by a bumped up schedule to four days per week in April.

Post time will once again begin at 6:15 pm every night except Saturdays when first post will be 7 p.m. unless otherwise noted to accommodate special events throughout the year, including concerts. Special post times of 4 p.m. will be announced as the season takes shape.

Also, post time on the three days encompassing the Triple Crown, Kentucky Derby Saturday, May 4, Preakness Saturday, May 18 and Belmont Stakes Saturday, June 8 will begin at 7:20 p.m.

New Vocations seeks breeding donations for annual fundraiser

New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program is currently organizing its 26th annual stallion auction to be held via onGait.com. The auction dates are set for February 6 – 8, 2024 with all proceeds to benefit New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program, which is a Standardbred Transition Alliance accredited charity.

“We rehabilitate the horses, break them to ride and care for them until a qualified adopter can be found,” said Executive Director Dot Morgan. “Then we educate the adopters on the characteristics of racehorses, answer myriads of questions, encourage them through problems and offer training guidelines. New Vocations adoptees can be returned at any time, for any reason throughout their life.”

The stallion auction is New Vocations’ biggest Standardbred fundraiser of the year and a perfect opportunity for stallion owners to show their support of aftercare.

Donated breedings for the stallion auction should be submitted by Monday Jan. 1, 2024 to maximize advertising for the donor. However, breeding donations will be accepted up until the auction in February.

To donate a breeding, email Dot Morgan at dot@horse-adoption.com or call (937) 205-4667.

Monetary donations are also accepted for the event. Donations may be made through the Website at www.NewVocations.org or by regular mail to New Vocations, 719 Dolan Lane, Lexington, KY 40511.

Indiana horsemen hit top performer list in 2023

By Tammy Knox

It’s customary to see Indiana stallions ranked on the list of top performers, but this year, the list of top performers for the 2023 season in North America includes several drivers. For the first time, Harrah’s Hoosier Park 12-time leading driver Trace Tetrick has surpassed his brother, Tim in the overall driver standings by wins with 529 wins as of Monday, Dec. 12. Tim is ranked in sixth right behind Trace with 503 wins.

Other Indiana based drivers on the overall list of drivers includes John DeLong, ranked 36th with 279 wins and more than $4.7 million in earnings. He has maintained a Universal Drivers Rating System (UDRS) driving average of .297 all season.

The U.S. Trotting Association also divides drivers up among starts, providing a list for reinsmen who have less than 300 starts on the year. Michael Detweiler is among those drivers with 19 wins from 147 starts. Detweiler competed on the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit all season long, guiding horses to more than $100,000 in earnings and maintaining a UDRS of .281. Also on the list of drivers with 300 starts or less is James Yoder ranked 46th with 30 wins and a UDRS of .256.

In the middle category of drivers with 300 – 499 starts, Doug Rideout is ranked ninth with 67 wins and more than $442,000 in earnings. The reigning ISFC driving and training champion completed the year with a UDRS of .343. Peter Wrenn is also among this list, ranking 12th with 86 winners, more than $1.9 million in earnings and a UDRS of .321.
Several Indiana sires are completing the 2023 racing season among the top sires in North America. Once again, Rockin Image made the top 10 among pacing stallions while Swan for All is among the top 10 for trotting sires, showing the competitive level of the Indiana breeding program for racing in the United States and Canada.

Through Monday, Dec. 12, Rockin Image had 952 overall foals with 299 starters for a total of $8,747,128 in earnings. Among all two-year-olds that started for the Rocknroll Hanover stallion, he had 58 starters that earned $759,472, showing he is still producing winners after all these years of standing at stud at Victory Hill Farm. Rockin Image’s most successful son this season is the great Ponda Warrior, winner of the 2023 Dan Patch at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. From 10 crops so far, his foals have earned more than $58.3 million with 190 horses over the $100,000 mark. He has also produced 39 racehorses with marks under the 1:50 time barrier with Freaky Feet Pete, who is now also a sire in the state, as his richest and fastest with a mark of 1:47.1 and more than $1.6 million in earnings. Another standout for 2023 included two-year-old Teelatini, who took a mark of 1:51.1 and earned more than $271,000.

Joining Rockin Image on the list of top pacing stallions is Always a Virgin, ranked 13th and JK Endofanera, ranked 16th by money earned from their foals. Always a Virgin, who is now retired, had 261 starters with more than $6.7 million earned while JK Endofanera had 179 starters good for $6.2 million. JK Endofanera had an outstanding two-year-old class this season. He is the highest ranked stallion among all two-year-old starters in 2023 with 35 freshman earning $1.1 million to rank in 11th, just ahead of fellow Indiana sire Tellit-likeitis, who was 12th with 55 starters and about $50,000 less in earnings.

Swan for All, Indiana’s reigning multiple Trotting Stallion of the Year, kept the momentum going in 2023. He ends the season ranked eighth among all trotting sires with 197 starters who earned $6.1 million. Dover Dan was also ranked 15th overall with 93 starters for $3.2 million. One of his rising stars was Skyway Paige, winner of more than $214,000 with a mark of 1:55.3 taken at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. The two-year-old filly was joined by Crystal Swan, Mel Bigswan, and Somebody Special who all earned more than $90,000 in their first year of action.

Swan for All is also among the top 10 freshman sires with 56 starters for $1.3 million in purses accumulated. Joining him for two-year-old trotters was Muscle Massive, who was ranked 16th with 12 starters and more than $742,000 in earnings and Dover Dan with 26 freshman starters worth $585,000 in earnings. Muscle Massive was also the highest ranking Indiana trotting stallion for earnings among two-year-olds with Swan For All and Pilot Discretion (16 starters, $432,000) also making the list.

The top trotting stallion for three-year-olds in 2023 nationally was Helpisontheway with 51 starters and more than $1.9 million earned. He also made the top 10 list for three-year-olds with the most purse earnings. Dover Dan was also listed among the top 15, ranked 14th for three-year-olds with an average of $25,023 in earnings per starter.

WHY NOT NOW
Always A Virgin - Star Of The Show - Four Starzzz Shark

p,2, Q1:56.4s; 3, 1:48.2f ($706,880)

Capitalizing on a sensational sophomore campaign, Indiana-sired Why Not Now will race and breed in the Hoosier State in 2024. The son of Always A Virgin put together a formidable 2023 season, marked by a strong finish to close out the year. Why Not Now hit the board in each of his 18 starts, winning nine times and banking $617,165.

In Indiana Sires Stakes competition he won a pair of divisions and finished second four times before claiming the $250,000 Super Final as the favorite in a time of 1:49.4 over a sloppy track. In open stakes action at Harrah’s Hoosier Park, Why Not Now finished second in the $190,000 Monument Circle before going on to capture the $260,000 Progress Pace final at Dover Downs. He defeated a stacked field that included Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final and Little Brown Jug elimination winner Moment Is Here, Breeders Crown elimination winner El Ray, Adios champ Cannibal and Dan Patch Award winner Stockade Seelster on his way to pacing a lifetime best 1:48.2.

From a family of proven producers

Why Not Now is the full-brother to Fox Stake winner Virgo p,2, 1:51.4s; 3, 1:48.3s, BT 1:48 ($458,212) and multiple Grand Circuit winner American Passport p,2, 1:51.4m; 3, 1:51f, BT 1:49.4 ($352,459).
