The racing industry was “Back on Track” with annual awards featuring a new venue and new champions to kick off 2022. It was good to see everyone back in one room to celebrate all the successes of 2021, and there were many.

Two Indiana sired horses went undefeated in Indiana Sires Stakes action as Hot Mess Express and Dover in Motion each topped their categories. Owner Sam Bowie, former University of Kentucky and NBA Player, has a true passion for the sport and it was great to see him in the room to accept all the awards for his filly, Hot Mess Express.

The banquet was also the backdrop for a big introduction as Tony Renz joins the Indiana Standardbred Association staff as the executive director. Another individual with a lot of passion for the sport, Renz has spent the past 14 years promoting Indiana racing for the racetracks and will be a big asset as he moves into a different perspective of the industry. He has deep roots with horse racing and is excited to get started in a new chapter in his life.

This issue also features a recap of the Michiana Classic and Midwest Mixed Sales along with information vital to all horsemen and horsewomen to prepare for the staking season in Indiana. There are a lot of opportunities from a lot of different angles for a lot of types of horsepower, and Indiana continues to thrive with all their stakes, late closers, early closers, and series.

Finally, Gabe Prewitt gives some of his thoughts on harness racing and where he sees some opportunities to grow. Being the Director of Racing for Caesars Entertainment, the next generation visionary is a big resource to the state’s progress in racing, and his attentiveness to detail is unmatched.

All signs point toward a great start to 2022. Here’s hoping this momentum keeps going for everyone as the 29th season of racing gets underway at Harrah’s Hoosier Park later this month.

It was good to see everyone back in one room to celebrate all the successes of 2021, and there were many.

Dream of a lifetime

Tony Renz assumes role as executive director of ISA

By Tammy Knox

Working around racing was inevitable for Tony Renz. The native of Louisville, Ky. grew up with an understanding of the sport, and his professional career has led him to a dream position as the new executive director of the Indiana Standardbred Association, a role he began Monday, Jan. 24.

Renz grew up in a family that had an appreciation for racing. His father attended the races frequently at both Churchill Downs and Louisville Downs and Renz was exposed to the track and horses at a young age.

“I grew up everyday looking at the Twin Spires,” said Renz. “Our home was right across the street from Churchill and Barn 41 and 42 was right across from our house. That’s where they kept the Kentucky Derby horses every year. Horse racing has always been at my doorstep.”

Renz couldn’t escape the equine influence. His high school mascot was the Colts at St. Francis DeSales, and following graduation, he headed to Murray State University in Western Kentucky where the mascot was the Racers. The school is so embedded in racing that a retired Thoroughbred circles the track after every touchdown during home football games.

Renz graduated from Murray with a bachelor’s degree in business management. His wife, Tina, whom he met in high school and also attended Murray, graduated with a degree in speech pathology and relocated to University of Tennessee to work on her Master’s, giving Tony the opportunity to work as a general manager at a restaurant.

The Renz moved to Kent State where Tina continued her education and Renz continued work in the restaurant industry with the company that owned Olive Garden. While living in the Cleveland area for three years, Renz was reintroduced to racing.

“I became very familiar with Thistledown and Northfield Park,” added Renz. “After that, we moved back to Louisville and that’s when I became Director of Purchasing for Caesars Southern Indiana.”

Renz worked in that position until he got a call from Jim Brown, who invited him to consider a move to Hoosier Park here a new casino was going into a racetrack. The position immediately lured Renz to Indiana and he helped open Hoosier Park Racing & Casino in 2007 as Director of Purchasing. It didn’t take long for management to recognize Renz skill set and he was promoted to Sponsorships in 2011. From there, he assisted with the opening of Winner’s Circle in downtown Indianapolis and eventually was named Director of Marketing Partnerships for both Hoosier Park and Indiana Grand when Centaur Gaming acquired the property in 2013.

“When the tracks went to one breed, Hoosier started doing more with harness, and I saw a need and love for the sport,” said Renz. “We were able to bring in things to enhance racing, such as the Indy Car Celebrity Drivers race and other events. That’s when I really started to fall in love with Standardbred racing.”

Renz began bringing in numerous partnerships to Hoosier Park, including a downtown brewery that developed the Dan Patch beer. He was responsible for several other partnerships that began to grow over the next six years. Renz was also on the initial team that investigated the possibility of bringing the Breeders Crown to Indiana.

“I had never heard of the Breeders Crown until 2015,” said Renz. “Becky Young, Rick Moore, and I went to Woodbine for the Breeders Crown. That trip was very eye opening, and I saw one of the races that will remember as one of my favorites of all time.”

Renz is referring to the win by Freaky Feet Pete and Trace Tetrick in the 2015 Breeders Crown. The exciting finish through the rain gave Renz an understand on how important the Breeders Crown was and a sense of family in the world of Standardbred racing.

“We were sitting right next to Larry Rheinheimer and his family,” said Renz. “That was my first experience with a Breeders Crown and I’ll never forget that experience and watching the Rheinheimers win that race. It was a memorable night.”
Renz went to work in luring sponsors and partnerships to Harrah’s Hoosier Park for the first-ever Breeders Crown in Indiana in 2017. He was an integral part of the team that put together an event envied by the Standardbred racing world. It also provided Renz with a second race that will forever stay with him as a memorable moment.

“Seeing Beckhams Z Tam win the 2017 Breeders Crown was a thrill,” said Renz. “Watching the Macombers in the winner’s circle after that race was amazing. It was a very heart touching moment.”

Renz continued to watch and learn about the Standardbred industry. He became more and more interested in the breed and his experience at Hoosier Park only strengthened his desire to learn more. In 2020, he attended his first sale at Fasig Tipton, which opened up a whole other avenue of the business for him. In 2021, Renz left Caesars to work for a year at Fairmount Park in a similar position, also broadening his scope of experience in racing.

“I feel like my whole career has led me to this position with the ISA,” said Renz. “Attending the sale was just another little piece of the puzzle that attracted me to this position. Even working at Fairmount Park the past year helped set me up for this. I believe my assets on how to understand Standardbred racing, plus I’m new enough to it, that it makes me part of the plan to help take Indiana racing to the next level.”

Renz is committed to continue the learning curve and to bring a new perspective into the ISA that will help the organization excel. He also hopes to bring some fresh ideas to the table to enhance the racing product that has become one of the best in the business.

The Renz family are now bona fide Hoosiers. They have lived in Noblesville full time since 2009. Renz and his wife have two children, Elizabeth and Zach. Elizabeth is a junior at Indiana University studying pre med while Zach is a senior at Hamilton Southeastern. He’s headed to IUPUI next year, giving the Renz family even more roots in the Hoosier State.

“I thank the ISA for bringing me back to Indiana,” continued Renz. “My goal is to continue to help promote Standardbred racing in Indiana. This program is top notch in North America. And, living in Noblesville, I have neighbors that are not aware of what’s in their back yard. I hope to help change that and make the program even better. I’m so excited for this position. I feel like I was made for it. And, I’m ready to hit the ground running.”

Jeff Cullipher scores 1,000 training wins

By Tammy Knox

Jeff Cullipher, a resident of Middletown, Ind., kicked off the 2022 racing season by recording his 1,000th career training win at The Meadowlands. A current board member of the Indiana Standardbred Association, he has won three leading trainer titles at Harrah’s Hoosier Park in the past five years and has now branched out to the East Coast with his partner Tom Pollack, who races under the moniker of Pollack Racing. Together, the duo has made their mark in New Jersey over the past year while keeping a competitive string in Indiana.

Cullipher’s milestone was recorded with Birdman Jan. 8, 2022. It was the third of three wins on the card for Yannick Gingras, who guided the trotter. Birdman, a four-year-old son of Swan for All, has won three of three as of Feb. 1, 2022. He was a recent purchase by Cullipher and Pollack and he now has a mark of 1:57.1.

A native of Henderson, Ky., Cullipher followed his father into racing and also followed him to Indiana in the early years of pari-mutuel action at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. The younger Cullipher took out his driver’s license in 1998 and has been a trainer since 1991. Although he has 535 wins as a driver, his success has been in the training ranks. Cullipher has flourished during recent years since partnering with Pollack in 2013.

Cullipher and Pollack teamed up in 2021 to take home the Leading Owner title at The Meadowlands. In addition, Cullipher scored his first Leading Trainer title at The Big M. Horses from Cullipher’s barn won 54 races and just missed earning $1 million in purses during the 61-day meet.

Cullipher completed the 2021 racing season in Indiana with a second-place finish. He won 105 races and joined Tyler George as the only other trainer to eclipse 100 wins for the meet. He also finished second behind Erv Miller for most purse money earned, accumulating more than $1.5 million from horses under his care. Cullipher’s top horse in Indiana for 2021 was Dunbar Hall, who won seven of 13 starts.

Cullipher and his wife, Kori, have two daughters, Darbie and Dakota.

The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) and Harrah's Hoosier Park teamed up for “Groom of the Week” during the 2021 racing season. Mateo Salala Alvarez was the final recipient of the award last season, which was presented after the deadline of the December issue of the ISA Magazine.

Salala Alvarez has been in the Standardbred business for two years. He currently works for the Jay Hochstetler Stable, which was new to Indiana in 2022 and now calls Indiana home.

Hochstetler, who is very active in promoting horse racing on social media, had this to say about Salala Alvarez on Twitter: “The absolute best employee I could ask for. Couldn’t think of a more deserving person for this.”

Salala Alvarez noted his favorite horse of all time to care for was All on Red, a Tellitlikeitis gelding who won in 1:54.1 as a two-year-old. His favorite horse during the 2021 racing season in Indiana was Ponda Warrior, who won three of nine starts last year as a two-year-old and took a best mark of 1:51.3.

Nominations for “Groom of the Week” were available in the paddock lounge. The groom was showcased through social media and through the in-house audio-visual system at the track. A total of 17 grooms received the honor during the 2021 racing season.

Revisiting and Remembering Indiana Standardbred History

By Robert Heyden

The following is a list, in no particular order, of some focal points, milestones, dates, you name it, that have helped shape Indiana into the national presence it enjoys today in Standardbred racing. Then and now, each and every one represents a brick, or a stone, in the foundation that is harness racing today in the Hoosier State.

1. 1947 – the first Trotting & Pacing Guide had the racing schedule:
   - September 6-Horsemans Futurity $10,000
   - September 7-Horsemans Stake $34,000
   - September 8-Fox Stake $31,000

2. Single G made $113,443.50 in racing competition. He was foaled April 4, 1910. He was bred by Lawrence Connors Stock Farm, Centerville, Ind. He made 434 starts in his career with 264 victories and an incredible 414/434 placings.

3. Algiers was the No. 1 Aged Trotter of 1947 with $79,304.23. He lowered the track record at Indianapolis to 1:58.4. Not impressed by his earnings? Well, two Horses Of The Year were behind him in earnings that season: Proximity had $49,000 (1950 HOY) and Victory Song had $60,000 (HOY in 1947).

4. USTA Directors in 1947 from Indiana: Andy Adams, Sep Palin, and Leo McNamara.

5. The World Trotting standard was lowered in Indiana by Nevele Pride in 1969 to 1:54.4 at Indianapolis.

6. Nancy Hanks was a six-year-old trotting mare who lowered the world record to 2:04 flat in 1892 with Budd Doble at Terre Haute, Ind.

7. Earnest Warnock had 56 wins in the bike in 1947. He from Swayzee, Ind.

8. George Sholty was born in Logansport, Ind. on Nov. 2, 1932. He went on to a Hall of Fame career, highlighted in 1966 with Triple Crown winning Romeo Hanover, making George that season just the third driver ever to reach $1 million in a single year. He also won the richest race ever at the time, the 1979 Meadowlands Pace for $750,000 with Sonsam. He later took the Hambletonian, also with Legend Hanover. Other Sholty notables included Rivaltime, Express Ride, Armbro Fling and Gentle Stroke.

9. The first ever Horse of the Year was the 1944 sales topper among yearlings at $37,000 -Victory Song. Indiana native Sep Palin went 1-2 in the very first Horse of the Year ballot with Hoot Mon, who was second best at 165 to 160 in the voting.

10. Speed ratings used to be a big deal. In 1985 Indianapolis was rated 2:01.4.

11. Mark MacDonald has a way with firsts! He won his first ever Little Brown Jug on the very day he debuted in Ohio in 2006 with Mr Feelgood. In 2021, he won his first Peter Haughton Memorial and his first Meadowlands Pace. In Indiana, his... first win came at quite an opportune time, in the 2017 Breeders Crown with Pure Country. She was 4 at the time. That win helped her become the first ever pacing female to be honored as tops in her age category at two, three and four.

12. The average price of a yearling bought at auction rose every year from 1969 to 1981.

13. In 1984, a closer look at the buyers of the top 10 most expensive yearlings sold that year show no Hoosier residents. Not a single resident was among the buyers. That was a decade prior to pari-mutuel wagering making it to Indiana Sept. 1, 1994.

15. Ray Gibson bred Rambling Willie, who was bred in Indiana as a foal of 1970. "The Horse That God Loved" had a unique distinction of being the last horse to twice lead in all-time earnings. He took over in 1979, then Niatross surpassed him in 1980, then he surged back in front in 1983 before Cam Fella passed everyone.

16. Birthdates and Birthplaces of some notables from Indiana over half a century ago:
   - Harold Barnes 2/26/40 Greenfield Ind.
   - Mel Chupp 1/30/31 Goshen Ind.
   - Charles Conrad 9/24/26 Harrison County Ind.
   - Jerry Landess 2/24/26 Portland, Ind.
   - Dwayne Pletcher 7/27/31 Goshen, Ind.
   - Gene Sears 6/11/09 Mooreland, Ind.
   - Jay Sears 10/5/41 Indianapolis, Ind.
   - William Shuter 8/7/28 Osgood, Ind.
   - Dan Taylor 12/30/1899 Hillsboro, Ind.

17. In 2004, only two Indiana residents were members of USHWA: Ellen Taylor and Jessica Barnes. In 1984, there were none.

18. Doug Ackerman passed away a half dozen years back. He was born in LaPorte, Ind. He developed such young trotting talents as Self Confident, Noble Hustle, Crown Point and Breeders Crown winner and Hambo runner-up Chocolatier in 2005-2006.

19. Hal Dale (1926-1955) never left Indiana. Ever. He is the sire of Dale Frost and grandsire of Meadow Skipper, who pretty much single-handedly changed the sport back from his 1970 first crop star to well into the 1980s. Hal Dale was bred by William Thompson of New Ross, Ind.

20. Most know Dan Patch is from Oxford, Ind. with his barn still intact -120 years later.

21. Adios was foaled in 1940 at Two Gaits Farm in Carmel, Ind.

22. Chris Boring, born in Indianapolis, is heading to his Hall Of Fame induction in July at Goshen, NY.

23. The first ever $3 million Standardbred career was Indiana Bred Nihilator in 1985, surging past that milestone in victory in his final career start at Garden State Park in the Breeders Crown ($3,225,653). Robert Gangloff of Logansport bred him from the first crop of 1980 Horse of the Year Niatross.
24. Leo McNamara Sr. (1878-1952) was the master of Two Gaits Farm.

25. Jerry Landess was a 19-time Leading Driver in Indiana.

26. John DeLong has not yet won the title at Hoosier Park, but it is safe to say he’s knocking on the door.

27. Peter The Great was a $50,000 purchase in 1916 by Stoughton A Fletcher of Indianapolis.

28. 1935 Hambletonian winner, the one and only Greyhound, set the world record for the one and one-half miles and two miles in Indiana in times of 3:02 1/2 and 4:06. He accomplished this in 1937 and 1939.

29. Dover In Motion, the standout freshman trotter of 2021 with earnings of $309,400 in Indiana (undefeated in Indiana Sires Stakes with a 1:53.2 mark) is a son of Dover Dan, who competed in the 2017 Hambo final. Dover Dan’s sire is Andover Hall, and his dam is C R Kay Suzie, the 1995 Horse of the Year and the oldest living Horse of the Year at age 30.

30. First Time in Indiana – at any track!
   Bill O’Donnell says, “1996 with Gramola for Bill Wellwood.”
   Roger Welch says, "I won my first start ever with Rods Deal for George Steinbrenner in the Fox Stake. Tommy Haughton drove. Growing up winning the Fox was always a goal of mine - growing up in the Midwest and it always being a prestigious race. The winner was always on the magazine covers.”
   Ron Pierce says, "I can't remember the horse's name, but it was for the Katz Brothers. In 1989, I think. It was my first time at the Indianapolis track. I had a great time that day."
   Joe Holloway says, “1996 Dan Patch (winner) with Jenna's Beach Boy.”
   Corey Callahan says, "I remember it well. It was with Mr Wiggles in the Hoosier Cup (2009) and it was my first time on the seven-eighths. I was on the lead turning for home and I can remember saying, ‘Where's the wire?'”

31. Back in 1960, a name on the program was Barker Farm of Fairland, Ind.

32. Indiana and the Little Brown Jug have a 'spread out' history.
   • 1946 (Year One) - Curly Smart was driving for Sep Palin and they combined to win with Ensign Hanover
   • 1947 - The winning breeder of Forbes Chief was Indiana's Henry Feindel of Greensburg.
   • 1955 - Billy Haughton won it with Quick Chief for Breeder Leo McNamara from Two Gaits Farm.
• 1985 - Nihilator holds on for Haughton/O’Donnell and breeder Bob Gangloff from Logansport.
• 2015 - Wiggle It Jiggleit edges to the front in a game effort, a son of Mr Wiggles who stood in Indiana.

33. Gallo Blue Chip was the first Horse of the Year to race at Hoosier Park during their award-winning season. It was 2000 and he was third in the Hoosier Cup for $500,000.

34. In 2020, father and son each had a spot in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks final - James and dad Verlin Yoder. May Baby was bred by Oakwood Farms out of Indiana. Neither she nor Reba Blue Chip (dad) got any money. Reba finished ninth at 26-1 and May Baby finished 10th at 10-1.

35. Bruce Nickells, a resident of Anderson, Ind., has been in the Hambo driving three times and won the Hambo Oaks in 1989 with Park Avenue Kathy. He is in the Hall Of Fame and will be 94 on July 5. He has some roots in Indiana. "I worked for Edgar Leonard and went to all the fairs as a kid in Indiana. I used to see Sep Palin around a lot too."

36. Jimmy Creed was ninth on the first ever Horse of the Year Ballot (1947). Owned and bred by Silas Thompson in New Ross, Ind., Jimmy Creed was a great grandson of Hal Dale (bred by his father William) who earned $108,909. Only Single G had preceded him on the $100,000 list. He set a record of 2:00:1/2 for Two-Year-Olds in 1944 and retired in 1949.

37. Dawn Allen, wife of Rod Allen, who campaigned 1995 Horse of the Year C R Kay Suzie, described what it was like competing in Indiana. "Our first experience in Indiana? The backstretch was the cleanest and most well-organized we had ever seen. The horsemen were friendlier than we had ever known. When we raced Dream Baby Dream in the Breeders Crown at Hoosier in 2017, they did a fantastic job."

38. Paul Kelly trains horses and has for years. The first go-round was in 2009 at Indiana Downs with Bossy Volo in the Oliver Trotting Classic for $55,000. "We finished fourth - Joe Sbrocco and Don Latore owned. Liked the place. Got treated well there."

39. Trace Tetrick won the Jugette in 2014 with Colors A Virgin. Then Trace won the 2015 Breeders Crown with Freaky Feet Pete.

40. The 2000 Jugette was won by Eternal Camnation, owned by the stable of the same name out of Indiana.
After taking a year off due to restrictions associated with COVID-19, the annual Indiana Standardbred banquet was back in full force in late January. The event, sponsored by the Indiana Standardbred Association, Standardbred Advisory Board and Harrah’s Hoosier Park, is an important part of the landscape of racing as the year’s standouts are showcased, bringing all horsemen and horsewomen into one room for the celebration.

Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) President Joe Putnam kicked off the event with a special introduction of Tony Renz as the new executive director of the organization. Renz noted his gratitude to the ISA board for “bringing him back to Indiana” and he was already in full gear, networking for his new position in racing.

Kevin Mack, longtime emcee of the event, returned to Indiana from his now home in Florida to host the event. He immediately brought applause to the room, noting the new venue for the banquet and “how easy it was to park tonight” at the Embassy Suites Conference Center, located off Exit 210 on Interstate 69.

Mack also asked the packed crowd for a moment of silence to honor and remember all those lost in racing over the past two years.
We lost a lot of friends and family in the past two years,” added Mack. “It’s always important to take a moment and remember them.”

Claudene Webb, ISA Chaplain, provided a blessing before dinner was served.

Mack began the program portion of the event by recognizing the three outgoing directors, Brandon Bates, Wilbur Eash and Richard Keaton. Their service was applauded and gratitude was shown for their dedication to Indiana racing.

Mack then introduced Steve Cross, recipient of the 2021 ISA Special Recognition award. Mack noted the extent of Cross’ career in racing, starting at the county fairs as an announcer at the age of 19. From there, he held jobs as the track voice for Raceway Park, Scioto Downs and Pompano Park before returning to Hoosier Park in 1998. Over the years, he also served as the assistant announcer to Roger Huston for 15 years at the Little Brown Jug. During Cross’ tenure in Indiana, he called 22 years of Dan Patch races, Indiana Sires Stakes, Caesars Trotting Classic events and two Breeders Crowns.

In addition to his work in the announcer’s booth, Cross has been active on the sales circuit from everything to pedigree reading to helping launch the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale where he serves as general manager. The company now conducts three sales annually, the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale, Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale and Michiana Classic Yearling Sale.

Cross also has experience working with horses. His family was heavily involved in Trottingbred racing and breeding and in the 1990s, they owned and stood the top stallion in that industry in Shamrock Spencer. Cross capped off his racing experience by competing in the 1994-1995 Billings Amateur Trot Series, winning the championship at Freehold Raceway in 1995.

“It’s been a great ride,” said Cross, who was joined by his wife, Darlene, son Jate, and daughter-in-law Marcie for the recognition. “In 32 years of calling races, I never considered it a job. I always loved to do it. At Hoosier Park, I had the privilege of calling some of the best horses in the business, but the one I miss the most is the Indiana Sires Stakes. There is nothing like a good Sires Stakes program. I accept this award with humility and also on behalf of my wife, Darlene. She has been a rock to me and my career along with Jate and Josiah (who was not in attendance due to a school show choir event at Indiana Wesleyan University). This is a great honor for an individual that was voted as the quietest kid in my class.”

Following the recognition of a member of the past, the recognition of the future was conducted. Mack introduced two recipients of ISA Youth of the Year David Wickey and Dianna Detweller. David is a 14-year-old from Monroe, Ind. who assists with family breeding and training activities of their horses while Dianna is a 15-year-old from Milroy, Ind. who also assists with family activities involved with their horses. Each recipient received a jacket for the honor.

Ten individuals were also recognized as ISA Scholarship recipients for the 2021-2022 school year. Those receiving college assistance included Alexa Barrett, Parker Bates, Anna Boyer, Cameron Dyer, Parker Dyer, Lexi Miller, Jakob Morgan, Rachel Morgan, Victoria Richman and Tyler Wrenn.

Before diving into the equine awards, the leading drivers and trainers of the year were recognized. Trace Tetrick earned Leading Driver of the Year while Tyler George was Leading Trainer of the Year. Tetrick won 403 races in 1,877 starts with more than $4.9 million in earnings. George topped the standings at Harrah’s Hossier Park with 119 wins from 363 starts to earn $1.1 million from his stable.

Doug Rideout had a banner year on the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit to earn both the leading driver and leading trainer titles. As a driver, he had 85 wins, 41 seconds and 30 thirds to lead all drivers. As a trainer, he scored 68 wins, 32 seconds and 21 thirds to score the title.

Small Breeder of the Year for trotters went to Concord Stud Farm LLC of New Jersey, who produced three Indiana sired horses, including Swing-

Swingforthefences. They also raised Swan for All and sold him as a weanling.

The Large Breeder of the Year was once again awarded to Victory Hill Farm, Inc. owned and operated by Dr. Jeff and Maria King. They produced 81 starters in 2021 with their horses accumulating $2.5 million in earnings, $1 million of which was won in Indiana. The richest of the lot was Little Rocket Man. It was the 11th time in 14 years the farm earned the award and the seventh straight win for the farm located in LaGrange, Ind.

Victory Hill Farm, Inc. also had the pacing and trotting sires of the year in Indiana. Rockin Image earned his fourth title as Pacing Sire of the Year based on total foals racing in Indiana. Overall, he had 22 starters in Indiana Sires Stakes action, including Rockin Nola, Little Rocket Man and Dalby Hanover.

Swan for All was once again the overwhelming leader among trotting stallions to earn his fifth consecutive title. He had 40 involved as starters in the ISS series good for $2.1 million in earnings. Top foals in the winner’s circle in 2021 included Swingforthefences, Swift Swanda, Shirley Goodness, Whata Swan, and M-M’s Dream.

Sam Bowie, former basketball player at University of Kentucky and the NBA, was in the room to accept the award for his standout pacing filly Hot Mess Express, who earned 2021 Pacer of the Year. The filly, by Panther Hanover, won 13 of 16 starts with earnings in excess of $631,000. She went undefeated in Indiana Sires Stakes action. Bowie and his wife, Stephanie, accepted the award for the filly trained by Tony Alagna.

Swingforthefences was named Trotter of the Year. The sophomore gelding hit the board in 19 of 20 starts for the year with 12 wins and more than $550,000. Trained by Melanie Wrenn, the Swan for All son is owned by David McDuffee and L & L Devisser LLC. Peter Wrenn drove the gelding during the season and was in attendance to help accept the award with his wife, Melanie, and the connections of Swingforthefences.

Several drawings were held for door prizes, from gift cards to free breedings. Organizations and individuals donating prizes included Harness Horse Youth Foundation, Harrah’s Hoosier Park Racing & Casino, Highalator Ownership and Schwartz Boarding Farm, Horseshoe Indianapolis Racing & Casino, Indiana Standardbred Association, Indiana Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association, New Wave Equine, Old 55 Distillery, Premier Acres, Doug and Julie Rideout, and John Wilson.

Following the program, Ted Martin served as DJ to provide some post-event entertainment for “Back on Track” in 2021.

The outpouring of support and caring for us has been overwhelming! Though thank you is not enough, please know how much we appreciate the kindness of our harness racing family!

Dave & Susanne White
Tara Ellen Taylor recently caught up with Caesars Entertainment Director of Racing Gabe Prewitt about horses, racing and where the industry is headed. The following is a Q & A Session with Prewitt.

What is your title with respect to your association with Caesars Entertainment and the tracks under the Caesars umbrella?
My title is officially Director of Racing for Caesars, but essentially 100 percent of my job has been Pompano related.

What are your other official jobs in the industry?
At this point, I am still fortunate to have some freelance opportunities. Those would include track announcer at The Red Mile, pedigree reader at the Standardbred Horse Sales in Harrisburg, and the occasional chance to join The Meadowlands TV crew.

What horses do you currently own and/or have in training?
I have four total in training. The only one racing is a four-year-old mare at Mohawk, Somewhere North, that I own with Chris Page. I have a four-year-old just starting back off an injury that was meant to be a pretty nice horse, Home Team. He won the Ohio State Fair stakes as a two-year-old at Scioto. I have pieces of two Downbythesesaside babies in training, one with Ron Burke and the other with Brian Brown. Other than that, we have a few mares at my father’s farm, two are still active broodmares.

What is the biggest change you have seen since your first ventures into racing and today?
I think the biggest change I have seen in the last 20 years is the acceleration of off-track wagering. Horseplayers are no different than any other consumer, they want things at their fingertips, and no one has to drive to the track to watch a race live anymore or even drive to bet simulcast.

What do you think will be the trend (for the next 5 years? 10 years?) for racetrack closures?
Well, I’d like to be fairly optimistic that most states are fairly solid in their relationships with the state/ownership. We are also very fortunate to have some tracks in the hands of private ownership that have a love for the game. (i.e. The Red Mile, The Meadowlands). So, I don’t see closures being a huge immediate problem as long as we put resources into lobbying, building relationships, etc. Unfortunately, we are losing the one track near and dear to me in South Florida.

What can or must be done to shore up racing’s issues for the long term?
Racing has a lot of issues as we all know, I think we need to focus on one issue at a time. If you take a step back, the issues could be overwhelming if you don’t develop a plan to focus. We could fill three or four more magazines if we tried to break them all down today.

Do we need to "dumb down" our racing programs for those who are intimidated by all the information? If yes, what is the best way to do this and what types of wagers might be popular? If no, how do we continue to educate young gamblers about the game?
NO. We have falsely long since thought that mindless gamblers are our target audience. They are not. We will never be as simple or flashy as slot machines or as instant as scratch off lottery tickets. Those folks need a fix a lot faster than 10 times a night every 20 minutes. We need to educate young, statistically-inclined gamblers on how to win. Focus on ticket structure, etc. As in every other sport in North America, information should be FREE and plentiful to the consumer. More people are gambling now than ever before. I know a slew of young people that play poker, play daily fantasy sports, and they crave stats and information. We make it nearly impossible to gain access to, and we charge money if you are lucky enough to find it. It’s ridiculous if we are trying to grow the game long term. We need resources and on-air talent that not only know how to handicap, but most importantly know how to win. Identify vulnerable favorites, etc.

Do you agree that the industry is sorely lacking in public relations, internship opportunities? If yes, do you have creative ideas on how to make racing more "user friendly" to the younger generation (college students ages 18 - 25 primarily)?

Yes. I have long since thought that any track that is near a college and not trying to get interns to help are missing out. Technology is constantly changing, and young people communicate on many different platforms that were not available even a few years ago. We should be evolving as well.

Takeouts used to be a dirty little secret. How important is it to keep them as low as possible?
Takeout is a difficult issue. With sports betting coming on board with a MUCH lower takeout structure, we better be aware that there are many price sensitive customers that will never give us a look at the traditional levels. Rebates help many higher volume customers, but they aren’t readily available to new customers.

Other than the top dozen or so, most trainers/drivers/owners are often anonymous or taken for granted. Should we change this, and would it matter in the long term for racing?
I think it is always good to highlight the many wonderful people in our sport. Those of us behind the scenes know this, but it would be great to introduce them to the general public. There are many platforms out there today that would make this quite easy.

Thinking about Bill Veeck - former baseball and racing general manager who was very hands-on everything. Some of today’s GMs seem to be more business/less fan oriented. How does this impact racing down the road?
When it comes to running a racetrack, I think there is no substitute for experience. If you’ve never owned a horse, you don’t know what it’s like to not get in a week while paying bills. If you’ve never gambled, you don’t know what it’s like to lose hard earned dollars through the windows. I think having experience in many areas hands-on has helped me be able to see things from those perspectives as well as a management perspective.

What do you think the most important thing is that we can give the bigger bettors?
We need to treat them with the respect they deserve. They ARE our customers. We need to work on treating those that we have left very well before we can ever focus on building our clientele. Depending on what their preferences are, there are many things that can be considered. Some customers are financially driven only where a fair rebate is plenty. Others like to feel nice when they come to the track, so a table in the dining room, etc. I don’t think all customers are the same in their wants/needs.

Looking at Hoosier Park for the 2022 season. What’s new?
I haven’t really had the chance to be involved with Hoosier at this point, as they have a great staff in place. I always enjoy attending the big race days there as a guest. I wish them all the best.
George, Tetrick score year-end awards

By Tammy Knox

Tyler George and Trace Tetrick each turned in another stellar season of racing at Harrah’s Hoosier Park in 2021. George earned his second straight leading trainer title while Tetrick earned his 10th leading driver title in Indiana for the 2021 season.

George, a native of Ohio, visited the winner’s circle 119 times with horses from his barn, maintaining a 33 percent win average and more than $1.1 million in purse earnings. Overall, George had the highest UTRS at .455 for top three finishers.

The number of wins on the year for George equaled Jeff Cullipher’s tally in 2016 for one season. George and Cullipher were the only two trainers to surpass the 100-win mark for the season in Indiana with Cullipher landing in second place with 105 wins. Other trainers rounding out the top 10 in the standings included Erv Miller (93); Walter Haynes Jr. (71); Britney Dillon (65); Missy Essig (61); LeWayne Miller (58); Melanie Wrenn (56); Trent Stohler (53); and Joe Putnam (52).

Erv Miller pulled in the most earnings on the year with more than $1.675 million. George was one of seven stables who eclipsed the $1 million mark in earnings for 2022.

Top horses from the George Stable in 2022 included Mac’s Big Boy, who won 10 of 22 starts. Other multiple winners out of the barn included DD’s Big Joe, Sandy Sue and Secret Threat, who each won seven races. Also, National Sport won five of six starts and was one of 23 different horses to visit the winner’s circle for the George Stable.

The George Stable has really taken off in the past few years. George earned his 1,000th career training victory in the fall of 2020 en route to his first trainer’s title. Earlier in 2021, he also took home top honors as Miami Valley’s leading trainer.

George has been training since 2004. He has scored at least 100 wins every year since 2016. As of Feb. 1, 2022, he has 1,236 wins with more than $11 million in purse earnings.

Tetrick was equally impressive during the 2021 racing season at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. The Geff, Ill. native turned in a history making year, crossing the wire first in 403 races, the first time a driver has reached that number of wins in one season in Indiana, a feat he accomplished on the final night of racing with a driving triple.

Tetrick maintained a 21 percent win average with an overall UDRS of .331. He just missed accumulating $5

John DeLong finished second in the standings with 256 wins followed by Sam Widger with 236. Other top 10 drivers included Brandon Bates (170); Michael Oosting (168); LeWayne Miller (119); Joey Putnam (110); Peter Wrenn (85); Ricky Macomber Jr. (69); and James Yoder (54).

Overall, Tetrick now has 6,365 career wins and more than $68 million in earnings through Feb. 1, 2022. He scored his best year to date in 2021 with 559 wins and more than $6 million in earnings. Tetrick has scored at least 200 or more wins per season since 2007 and more than 2 million in earnings since 2008.

The top horse of 2021 was Little Rocket Man who won 15 of 20 starts, the most wins of any other horse for the year. Whata Swan won 13 races while Rockin Nola completed the meet with 12 wins at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

Rick Moore, vice president and general manager of racing, made the presentations to George and Tetrick during the final night of racing in 2021 at Harrah’s Hoosier Park. Each winner received a trophy for their accomplishments in 2021.

million in purses for the year as he scored his 10th leading driver title at Harrah’s Hoosier Park and his eight consecutive award.

Returning to Chapel Ridge Farm for the 2022 breeding season, Swan In A Million offers a pedigree very familiar to Indiana breeders. This son of Andover Hall is a full brother to Swan For All, sire of winners of $36 million, including triple millionaire and Horse of the Year Hannelore Hanover 5, 1:49.2m ($3,069,857) and Breeders Crown final winner Fiftydallarbill 4, 1:50.2m ($1,056,238).

As a racehorse, Swan In A Million made 55 starts over six seasons, registering 16 wins and hitting the board nearly 53 percent of the time. The colt finished third in the $600,000 Breeders Crown final as a freshman, won the Review Stakes at Springfield as a sophomore, and raced second in the American National at age four.

In his first three seasons, Swan In A Million has been a favorite of breeders, averaging 100 mares bred per season. He has bred mares that include a sister to Hambletonian champion Market Share, a full-sister to the great Buck I St Pat, and Double Ivory, a producer of two in 1:52. His first crop of yearlings sold last fall at the Hoosier Classic sale, averaging just under $10,000. Swan In A Million gives breeders a chance to tap into the state’s top-producing trotting bloodline at a very reasonable cost!

FIFTYDALLARBILL
Swan For All - CR Dixie Chick - Royal Troubador
2, 1:55s; 3, 1:52.1f; 4, 1:50.2m ($1,056,238)

Fiftydallarbill, the fastest and richest son of Swan For All, stands his second season at stud in 2022. The 2017 Breeders Crown Two Year Old Trot champion returns to Chapel Ridge Farm.

Fans of Indiana harness racing are quite familiar with this millionaire trotter. As a freshman, he captured the $600,000 Breeders Crown final on his home turf of Harrah’s Hoosier Park. At three, he won the $220,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final and scored on the Grand Circuit, collecting a victory in the $75,000 Earl Beal Jr. Memorial consolation and finishing third in the $665,000 Canadian Trotting Classic. Over the course of five days, Fiftydallarbill finished a neck behind Six Pack in his Kentucky Futurity elimination in 1:50.2 before trotting a 1:51.1 mile in the final that same afternoon. He bounced back to defeat Katkin American in the Super Final, closing with a 26.3 last quarter in the slop for the victory. The trotter took his mark at age four, defeating Six Pack in Graduate Series action with a 1:50.2 performance.

Fiftydallarbill is from a top family. His sire has produced Horse of the Year and Indiana star Hannelore Hanover 2, 1:59.3s; 3, 1:54s; 5, 1:49.2m ($3,069,857). He is out of Royal Troubador mare CR Dixie Chick, a full-sister to World Champion and Dan Patch Award winner CR Commando 2, 1:53.2z ($378,602).

Fiftydallarbill offers a great value for the lucrative Indiana program and beyond! His foals will be Breeders Crown eligible. Book your mare early and don’t get shut out!

November Indiana sales held at Michiana Event Center

By Tammy Knox

For the first time in the history of the event, the Michiana Classic Yearling Sale and the Midwest Mixed Sale teamed up for one full day of sales action at the Michiana Event Center Tuesday, Nov. 23. The day began with 98 yearlings sold followed by 91 who entered the ring for the mixed sale.

Tabasco Cat, a son of Tellitlikeitis, was the sale topper of the fifth annual Michiana Classic Yearling Sale. He was purchased by Kim Roth, acting as agent for Rock and Roll Stables of Crete, Ill. The colt is out of the 100 percent producing mare Southwind Mocha, who is the dam of Smooth Mocha with a mark of 1:53.1 and nearly $100,000 in earnings. She has also produced Southside Kid, with a mark of 1:53.0. Speed runs in the family as the second dam is the standout mare Musical Dreamer, who earned more than a half-million during her career with a mark of 1:50.4.

The second highest priced yearling in the Michiana Classic Yearling Sale was Fivestar Photo, a filly by You Know You Do, who was purchased by Freeman Mast of Southern Illinois for $27,000. The filly is a half-sister to King Felix, who took a mark of 1:55.2 this past year. The second dam is Miss Athens, the dam of Indiana sire Major Athens.

Another top seller was Trotting Marky, a gelded son of You Know You Do from the Brookview Farm consignment. Cassie George of Anderson, Ind. purchased the trotter, who is a half-brother to Whom Shall I Love, for $26,000. Overall, the event grossed $891,200 for an average of $9,094, a 23.18 percent increase over 2020.

The Midwest Mixed Sale included a variety of entrants, from stallion shares to yearlings and weanlings followed by racehorses and broodmares. The top seller was Southwind Ritz, a brood mare purchased by Jonas Slabach of Apple Creek, Ohio for $87,000. The mare, consigned by Winterwood Farm of Ohio, is a daughter of Muscle Hill with a mark of 1:56.2. Sold as either a brood mare prospect or a racehorse, she is the daughter of Raising Roxanne, a 100 percent producing mare, and is a half-brother to Southwind Rich (1:57.1, $124,000).

Another top seller in the Mixed Sale was broodmare Shes Lights Out, also from the Winterwood Farm consignment. The mare is a daughter of Somebeach somewhere and sold for $52,000 to Swiss Boarding Farm. With a mark of 1:51.1, she is carrying her first foal by JK Endofanera.

Flow and Go was also a top seller at the sale. The Yankee Glide mare is in foal to Swan for All and brought $50,000 through the ring. She was purchased by John Lengacher from the In-Law Stables consignment. The mare is a sister to the dam of May Baby.

If more than twelve (12) but twenty-four (24) or fewer horses are declared to start, two (2) divisions of eliminations will be held.
Eliminations, if necessary, will be held at least one week prior to the final. Only those horses entered into the elimination will be eligible to enter for the final. The other horse will be the second (2nd) “Also Eligible” (“AE2”).

Carl Becker

Carl Becker was barely a teenager when he provided play-by-play for a summer softball league in Altamont, Ill., but at that moment he knew he wanted a career behind the microphone. He was introduced to harness racing as a kid at the Effingham County Fair and has since spent more than five decades calling horse races.

Becker graduated from the University of Illinois College of Agriculture in 1958, where he majored in agricultural education and minored in animal science, and spent five years teaching agriculture in Beecher City. In 1964 he began calling races regularly at the fairs, and served as superintendent of speed at the Illinois State Fair and on his home county fair board.

In 1964 Becker took over the announcer’s booth in Springfield from the late Hall of Famer Stan Bergstein, who had mentored the young announcer. Soon, major tracks were seeking him out to provide his insightful calls and commentary, most notably DuQuoin, Illinois, where he called the Hambletonian and World Trotting Derby, and The Red Mile in Lexington, where he announced Niatross’ historic 1:49.1 time-trial.

In addition to his work in the announcer’s booth, Becker bred horses and stood stallions at his Fair Meadow Farm adjacent to the Effingham County Fairgrounds, many of which were Indiana-related horses. He also served as a pedigree reader for numerous auctions, including the Indiana sales. Becker helped to transform the job of auctioneer and pedigree reader by combining his knowledge of breeding with his enthusiastic announcing style. He had worked the sport’s two major sales, Harrisburg and Lexington, as well as Garden State Sales and Blooded Horse Sales. He was active as a pedigree reader and called races at the fairs.

In 2000 Carl Becker was inducted into the Illinois Harness Horsemen’s Association Hall of Fame.
Charles Kline

Charles "Charlie" Kline, 79, of Middlebury, Ind. passed away peacefully December 26, 2021. He was born on Dec. 2, 1942 in Elkhart, Ind. to the late Harold and Thelma (Wagner) Kline.

Charlie is survived by his wife of 31 years Nancy Holden along with a daughter Lisa (Mike) Swinyer; four stepdaughters Heather (Jeff) Wogoman, Kristy Kramer, Julie (John) Fogerty, Cheryl Fife; and a sister Karen Newland.

In 1990, Charlie founded Crystal Valley Sales in Elkhart and was well known in theRV industry. He was a member of the Sons of the American Legion and a man of faith. He enjoyed racing horses and riding motorcycles.

Over the years, Charlie owned and trained fast-classed Trottingbreds and purchased his first Standardbred in 1979. His beloved trotter New Order 3, 1:58 $125,174 (Super Ben Joe - By-pass Surprise by Noble Gesture) was competitive in Indiana Sires Stakes and late closers in the early and mid-2000s. His homebred pacing filly Goose's Weedie p, 3, 1:52 $237,480 (Dontgetinmyway - Nonstop To The Top by Hi Ho Silverheels) won the ISS Super Final for 2-year-old fillies in 2016 for trainer Mike Hollenback.

A celebration of Charlie's life will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be given to the Parkinson's Foundation.

Mary Landess

Mary Rose Landess, 89, died December 22, 2021 in Portland. Her husband, Jerry, preceded her in death as did her son, Jimmy. They were both impactful harness drivers in the Midwest.

Mary was a homemaker and accompanied Jerry to the races. She served for many years as clerk of the course at the Indiana county fairs. She was an avid reader and animal lover.

She loved her family and enjoyed going to her great-granddaughter, Justice’s softball games. Mary was a graduate of Jefferson High School in Randolph County.

Mary is survived by her son Gary (companion, Shirley) of Indianapolis; one daughter Lisa Reyes of Portland; cousin Rebecca Edwards of Deerfield; one granddaughter, Kylie Sciortino; three great-grandchildren Justice Day, Joseph Sciortino and Jasper Sciortino; and step grandchildren Paul Reyes, Regina Perez and Coryne Gonzales as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband and son, Mary is preceded in death by a grandson, Jerry Day; brother Fred Gelzleichter; sister Barbara Messimore; and son-in-law Pablo Reyes.

Memorial services will be held at a later date. Memorial donations may be made to the Jay County Humane Society.
Dr. James A. Myers

Dr. James A. Myers, 78, of Whites-town, died Saturday, Nov. 20. He was a doctor, mentor, prankster, Sunday School teacher, friend, and father.

A lifelong lover of horses, Jim achieved his boyhood dream of becoming a cowboy. He specialized in cutting and won numerous national competitions. In recent years, he owned and worked harness race horses, rising before dawn nearly every day of the week to exercise his horses at the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Jim embodied hard work and self-reliance, and took delight in the great outdoors. He enjoyed bird-watching, walking in the woods, splitting logs, chopping down trees, and taking on other dangerous tasks on his farm against his daughters’ better wishes. He shrugged off personal injuries; after one solo trip to the hospital, he hid copies of X-rays of his broken ribs from his daughters in a drawer in his kitchen. He enjoyed woodcarving and created long-handled spoons made from Osage orange and walnut wood harvested from his property, which he gave as Christmas presents.

Jim nurtured all generations of a sprawling family, who regularly gathered at his house to eat his famously good cooking. He taught his grandchildren how to whistle, whittle, snort, and sneak candies when mom wasn’t looking. He was often taciturn, but also a great talker and storyteller. Jim could cut a rug: At family weddings, he pulled every niece, aunt, cousin, and sister-in-law onto the dance floor to do the twist, waltz, and box-trot, which he learned as a child.

The dusty bench in his barn was typically the place where Jim would share what he was reading. A literature major in college, he continued to study Shakespeare, Faulkner, Chaucer, and the Bible throughout his adult life. “True Grit” was an all-time favorite along with the poetry of Robert Frost. He wrote letters that opened with a weather report or bird sighting before settling into deeper, sometimes philosophical territory.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University and the Indiana University School of Medicine, Jim also served as a physician in the U.S. Army Medical Corps at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. As an obstetrician-gynecologist in Indianapolis for more than 40 years, Jim brought thousands of babies into the world. Half of Boone County, many joked. While respected for his skill as a surgeon and in the delivery room, it was his compassion and advocacy for his patients that distinguished him. His employees and patients alike came to him with their

Ellen McDaniel

Ellen McDaniel, wife of ISA Lobbyist Mike McDaniel, passed unexpectedly in early December. She was born Aug. 1, 1950 in Indianapolis.

Ellen’s career included work with former Republican elected officials; House Ways & Means Chairman Representative John Hart, Lieutenant Governor John Mutz, and the campaigns of Attorney General Steve Carter and Lieutenant Governor Becky Spillman are among those. She was a past president of the Indiana Federation of Republican Women. Ellen also was awarded the state’s highest honor, the Sagamore of the Wabash, by Governor Mike Pence.

She loved her volunteer work at the food bank at Second Presbyterian Church and cradling babies as a nursery volunteer at St. Luke Catholic Church.

Ellen was preceded in death by her parents, Morris A. and Mary Alice Record. She is survived by her husband of 16 years, Mike McDaniel and sisters, Miriam Eggers (Gary), Marty Hadley (Jim), and Kay Carter (Wayne).

Contributions may be made in Ellen’s name to The Arc of Indiana or Dollars for Scholars, MSD of Decatur Township where her mother taught for 46 years. Both organizations are located in Indianapolis.
problems. He was also a mentor, who especially enjoyed coaching young residents, who sought him out for advice and midnight pizza.

Born Sep. 1, 1943, in Lebanon, Jim married his high school sweetheart, Linda Jones on July 14, 1967. Though she preceded him in death in 1992, she forever remained the love of his life. Jim was also preceded in death by his parents, Ezra and Marjorie Myers; his sister, Jeannine; and brothers Jon and Joe Myers. He is survived by his brother, Jack Myers, and daughters Anne Cleary, Caroline Millar (Lindsey), and Susannah Beachboard (Matthew); and grandchildren Molly Cleary, Will Cleary, Lila Cleary, August Millar, Emmett Millar, and Olivia Beachboard.

Jim's family gathered for a small and private funeral service in December. They are planning for a larger celebration of Jim's life in the Spring of 2022.

Final care of James has been entrusted to the Strawmyer & Drury Mortuary, 2400 N. Lebanon Street, Lebanon. You are invited to visit the website where you may sign his online register and leave a personal message at www.strawmyerdrury.com.

Linda K. Shoults

Linda Kay Shoults was born on August 22, 1949 in Indianapolis, Ind. and died on January 15, 2022 in St. Matthews, Ky. She was the daughter of Maurice and Katherine Shoults and was raised in Fortville, Ind. where she graduated from Mt. Vernon High School in 1967. As a child she learned drawing and painting from her Father, a graphic artist for the Indianapolis Star-News, and later grew to develop an abiding interest in horses which followed her all her life.

Linda received a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree from Ball State University, in Muncie, Ind., with major emphasis in special education. She taught at New Castle, Ind. in the public schools and was an administrator at the New Castle State Hospital. Later she became an administrator for Mental Health Management, a firm that contracts for servicers with other providers. In this role Linda developed psychiatric programs for hospitals in Iowa, Kansas, and Texas. She managed a series of group homes for developmentally disabled persons in Louisiana and upon her move back to Alta Vista, Kansas was the chief administrator for Aqua Terr, LLC, a company which did environmental projects for the federal government.

All her life, beginning in high school, she owned and rode horses. Her teenage job at the Dairy Queen in Fortville supported her first horse, Shiloh. While at Ball State, she worked as a groom at the Muncie Fairgrounds. She competed in dressage and trail riding events with various horses, including Arabians and Appaloosas. She owned a number of Appaloosa broodmares and raised and sold purebred Appaloosa horses to buyers in many states. In Kansas she met and became the life partner of James Hays, and when they retired in 2014, they returned to Corydon, Ind., living on Haysworth Farm, where he grew up. They owned and raced Standardbreds in Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky. Linda and Jim attended the 2016 US Trotting Association driving School held at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Delaware, Ohio.

Her oil painting studio in Kansas and later in Corydon, known as Prairie Godmother Studio, produced art that has been exhibited all over the United States, specializing in landscape scenes, wildlife, horses, and the Grand Canyon. She was for a number of years the President of Harrison County Arts and participated in shows at The Artisan Center in Corydon, as well as in several galleries in Indiana. She was a member of numerous professional societies of oil painters and often attended workshops taught by famous painters.

Linda is survived by her parents Bud and Kay Shoults of Corydon, her life partner Jim Hays, and many cousins. A private family memorial service was held at the Corydon United Methodist Church where Linda and her family are members. Her cremated remains were interred at Cedar Hill Cemetery. A celebration of her life is planned at a later date. Memorial donations should be made to Harrison County Arts, 121 E. Chestnut St, Corydon, IN 47112.
